GOOSE EGG FOR NEWPORT NEWS Y. M. C. A. TEAM

Artillerymen at Fort Monroe Simply Had a Walk Over With the Crippled Shipbuilders.

The Newport News Young Men's Christian Association baseball nine, rather patched up, was given a complete drubbing at the hands of the Fort Monroe association on the fort diamond yesterday afternoon. The Shipbuilders were crippled by the absence of several players and Monfal-come was forced to do the twirling for the visiting team. Manfalcome was wild at first, but settled down as the contest progressed, also not soon enough to prevent the defeat of his team. He weakened again in the eighth session and in the two last innings he allowed the Artillery-men to hammer out three home runs.
Monfalcome received poor support.
Fort Monroe played a steady, winning game from the start and the Artillerymen simply had out their heavy batting clothes and never once during the contest was the result. Each team made two double plays. The final score was 12 to 0.
